Irrigation Project Update:

The team from AP Irrigation will be backfilling all drilling holes by May 2nd, and reparation and resodding will take place thereafter by The Harvest maintenance team.

From May 2nd to May 9th the entire AP Irrigation team will be returning home to Edmonton to spend time with their families. As such, no drilling will take place during this time.

The project will resume May 10th, with the sole goal of improving golf course conditions for years to come.

Further updates about work scope and project timelines will be provided in our next irrigation update. We thank you for your patience during this exciting time.
